Trane Rental Protection Program

Worry less about the risks of renting.

Renting equipment from Trane is a smart and cost-effective solution to fill a temporary gap or a short-term need. Yet, it's not without risk. Under the terms of the rental agreement, you are responsible for theft or damage that could happen while Trane equipment is on your property. Don't worry: Trane has a simple solution. Our easy and affordable rental protection program provides a safeguard against the potentially high costs of unexpected events.

✓ Anything we rent can be covered

Whether you're renting a chiller for supplementary cooling, or a generator to provide auxiliary power, rental protection prevents temporary equipment use from becoming a financial burden. We cover chillers, air-handlers, power generators, air-compressors, and more.

Plan for unfortunate events

Just about any unplanned event that might happen while Trane Rental equipment is in use at your facility falls within the scope of coverage: Theft, vandalism, fire & water damage, accidental damages and more. See the Rental Protection Plan for full details.

Protect your budget

Trane Rental Protection Program provides reassurance that you won't incur costs that aren't in your budget. It can augment your current insurance policy or help keep your policy in good standing by avoiding claims. The fee is just 12% of the recurring equipment rental charges.

Here are some examples of the potential savings. Your actual costs and benefits will vary.
